

Moot—April 8, 2009

Attendance: 20

Officers' Reports:

A & S: April 15th —archery equipment with Robert; preliminary quarterly report has been sent out—please contact Gerald with corrections/additions

Archery: continues on Wed

Chatelaine: no report

Chronicler: new chronicler

Demo Coordinator: we've been asked about providing boffer training for a birthday party—this idea has been put on hold

Herald: no report

Marshalate: outdoor practices have begun at Woods Park. Weather rule will be the same as last year—if it is actively raining at 6:00 pm, practice will be cancelled without any calls being made.

Treasurer: $ 5583.06 balance; Letters of intent for the position of Exchequer will be accepted until May 13th, to take over for Etienne when she steps down in September

Guilds/Interest Groups

Fiber: meets April 16

Music: April 16 at Volmar and Isadora's

Scribes: as many as possible before Calling of the Herd, JAV and Lilies—April 10, 17, 24 and May 1, 8, 22, 29

Baronage: New officers have been selected—chronicler, Eleanor Deyeson; chatelaine, Isabeau Jehanne

At Coronation, a baronial lunch meeting dealt with the state of the kingdom—everyone is encouraged to put in award recommendation, especially for the AoA level awards. Bestowed peers are REQUIRED to put in 3 recs during this reign. Sashatec thanked the Mag Mor populace for their cooperation and cohesiveness. He was pleased with how Mag Mor stacked up against the other baronies.

Calling of the Herd will be April 26 at Antelope Park, in the enclosed shelter, from 1 pm to 7 pm. Angelo is autocrat; A & S competition (see flyer), and family games for the populace. Pot luck supper. Please come and enjoy!

James Arthur Vineyard demo is coming up—HalfTroll has been in contact with merchants. Jim Ballard attended moot and will get us some flyers to spread around. The date is MAY 16, from noon to 8 pm, with proceeds going to Big Brothers/Big Sisters. Archery will be open from noon to 6 pm. Jim is planning on adding an Irish rock band at 6:00 pm to keep people in the Faire longer.

Planned activities include: fighting, music, Mag Mor Mummies in the arena; scrolls/calligraphy, A & S demos. Gerald will bring the forge again.

Ozy suggested that we hold a fighter auction as a part of the show, with a gift basket for the winner bidder. Jim agreed to the idea.

We will need help at archery, A & S tent, set-up/tear-down, etc. Natalya will be contacting people about sunshades.

--Jim also suggested doing a Friday night Renaissance Feast, with fighting and entertainment and finger-friendly food. We put that idea on hold, but could consider something in the fall.

Other Business:

Don't forget Lilies—we will try to sign up for a troll shift on Wed. June 17th, from noon to midnight.

Mullen Update—I got an email notice about an event in Northshield in July that I forwarded to Mullen. They think they might be able to go, as it is only 2 hours away from them.

Baronial Gathering--

The fifth Wed. in April is open and we will have a social hour then. Bring snacks, visit, hang out, have fun.
